

SUPSI

Update on U.S. Corporate Tax Reform

International aspects and outlook for a territorial system

Date and time

Monday
October 2, 2017
2.00-5.30 pm

Refreshment included

Location

Classroom 1156
UBS Building
Via Cantonale 18
CH-6928 Manno

Comprehensive tax reform is one the main objectives of the new U.S. administration. The early focus on a "destination based cash flow tax" has shifted to a "territorial system", which would allow U.S. companies to compete more effectively on a global basis.

What can we expect from U.S. corporate tax reform in an international context? What will be the future of "check-the-box"? What will be its impact on taxation of intangibles?

amastl

FIDUCIARI | SUISSE

Target

Fiduciaries, accountants, lawyers and notaries, tax consultants, bank and insurance consultants, business managers, professionals involved in tax matters for private and public institutions, people interested in taxation.

Pricing

Free of charge.

Registration deadline

Thursday September 28, 2017.

Cancellation

Until Thursday, September 28.
Replacements are welcome.

Certificate of attendance

A certificate of attendance will be issued only upon request.

Program

International aspects of U.S. Corporate Tax Reform

Joseph Czajkowski

Former Senior Tax Counsel, Exxon Mobil Corporation, Irving, Texas; Member of the Tax Chapter Board of the Swiss-American Chamber of Commerce.

The Italian impact of U.S. Corporate Tax Reform

Nicola Sartori

LL.M; S.J.D; Assistant Professor of tax law, University of Milano Bicocca, Milan.

Swiss perspectives on U.S. Corporate Tax Reform

Peter Altenburger

Attorney at law; Founding Member and Counsel of Altenburger Ltd legal + tax, Zürich/Geneva/Lugano; Founding Member of the Tax Chapter of the Swiss-American Chamber of Commerce; Member of the supervisory board of SUPSI's Centro competenze tributarie.

Denise Pagani-Zambelli

Master of Advanced Studies (MAS) in Tax Law; Attorney at law; Senior Associate at Altenburger Ltd legal + tax, Lugano.

Registration form

| | |
|-------|---------|
| Name | Surname |
| Phone | E-mail |

Full address for invoice

| | |
|--------------|-----------|
| Name/Company | Address |
| Zip-code | Town |
| Date | Signature |