

SUPSI International Tax Law Forum - First Edition

23 March 2026

Advanced+

The Tax & Legal Competence Centre of the University of Applied Sciences and Arts of Southern Switzerland (SUPSI) is pleased to announce the first edition of the SUPSI International Tax Law Forum, a new academic event designed to foster discussion on emerging challenges and key developments in international taxation.

This inaugural edition brings together scholars and professionals to present and discuss innovative research addressing contemporary issues in international, European and digital tax law.

We are delighted to welcome participants to Lugano, in the inspiring setting of the LAC – Lugano Arte e Cultura, offering a stimulating environment for academic exchange and networking.

Programme

14:00 – 14:30 – Welcome Address and Opening Remarks

14:30 – 18:30 – Conference Sessions

Selected research contributions will explore key topics in contemporary international tax law, including:

- Taxation and artificial intelligence
- Digital economy and nexus rules
- Beneficial ownership and anti-abuse in international and EU tax law
- Sustainable taxation and environmental fiscal policy
- Tax residency and permanent establishment

The Forum aims to encourage innovative and interdisciplinary perspectives on the evolving landscape of international taxation.

18:30 – Networking dinner

The conference will conclude with a networking dinner, providing an opportunity for participants to continue discussions in an informal and welcoming atmosphere in the LAC's dining area, overlooking Lake Lugano.

Registration

Participation is free of charge, subject to registration.

Register here: <https://bit.ly/int-tax-law-forum-1>

Registration deadline: 19 March 2026

Contacts

SUPSI – University of Applied Sciences and Arts of Southern Switzerland

Tax & Legal Competence Centre (CCTG)

diritto@supsi.ch

+41 58 666 77 71

SUPSI

