This document serves as the official template for contributed abstracts (posters and/or talks) and provides detailed guidelines for preparing and submitting abstracts for the Conference on molecular modelling for energy and environment, which will take place at the Department of Innovative Technologies SUPSI in Lugano from October to 8th to 9th, 2025.

Guidelines

The abstract must not exceed one page, including references. When drafting your abstract in a word processor, use standard A4 size with the same margin and layout specifications provided in this template. Please adhere strictly to the template structure, ensuring proper formatting of all elements—this includes capitalizing the title, maintaining consistent spacing, and using superscripts to associate authors with their respective affiliations.

Format references [1, 2] as shown below.

Before submission, convert your abstract to PDF format. Name the file using the following convention: Lastname_firstauthor_CMMEE2025.pdf

Upload the PDF via the "Upload Abstract" field in the online application form.
